Genuine Domes of Silence are made of high carbon steel, case hardened and tempered by special process, so that they will outlast the furniture itself. Specially polished and finished to give a truly frictionless sliding surface that cannot mar or scratch. They give complete satisfaction on any floor—any floor covering.

Beware of imitations. Dissatisfied customers will not, as a rule complain to you—they simply go elsewhere to trade.

The cost of the Genuine Domes of Silence is so trifling—they are so easily—so quickly attached that there is no reason why this perfect furniture footwear should not go on every piece of furniture you handle, either in your repair department or on your sales floor.

There are six sizes. A size for every need.
